St. Xavier's High School, Gurugram Initiates 'Books Donation Drive'

To spread the joy and happiness to the deprived and to supplement the resource pool of books, St. Xavier's High School, Gurugram initiated a 'Books Donation Drive'. This edge, not only supported the vision of reaching out to the underprivileged kids to help them study, but also, reinforced that books are a unique portable magic and they need to be made a part of the environment a child grows up in. A total of 1440 books were donated by the parents. This initiative also intended to encourage reading habits and literature appreciation in children. Proud Xavierians have rightly proved, 'A true bibliophile knows the value of a book and most would go to any extent to share the joy of reading!' 15 students with 2 teachers visited an NGO to donate these books. This experience of giving will forever remain threaded into the lives of the students.
