Winners of India-UK quiz meet Prince Charles

GURGAON: Two Gurgaon students, who won the India-UK Cultural Quiz Competition, met Prince Charles, heir apparent to the British throne, at the British Council in New Delhi on Friday. The Duke of Cambridge was on a two-day visit to India.

Vignesh Deshpande and Anmol Das, students of Suncity School, defeated over 200 contestants from 35 schools across the National Capital Region in the competition held on October 14.

The competition was among the plethora of activities organised by the British Council to commemorate 2017 as the 'Year of Culture' for India-UK relations. The quiz tested students on their knowledge of topics, such as history, business, literature, sports, music, culture and tradition.

"I was filled with awe on meeting Prince Charles. Such opportunity comes once in a lifetime. He interacted with us. It was tough to win the competition. Our success was due to our team's effort," Vignesh Deshpande, also a student of Class XI, said.

"Winning the competition came as a pleasant surprise to me. Credit goes to my team for their support," Anmol Das, a student of Class IX, said.

"Co-curricular activities hone key personality traits. I would like to congratulate the team who made the school proud," principal of Suncity School Rupa Chakravarty said.
