with Howard Gardner's Theory of Multiple Intelligence. The platform provides an opportunity to students to explore and evaluate their intelligence traits and latent talents. The annual inter school competition had an array of activities specially designed for the students of Middle Years Program. Rupa Chakravarty, Director, Suncity Schools, said that the school skillfully designed this event and its activities with a view to enable students to elicit the best from within themselves. The competition was organized in four groups and students from Class V to XI participated in the 8 activities based on abilities such as- musical-rhythmic, visual-spatial, verbal-linguistic, logical-mathematical, bodily-kinesthetic, interpersonal, intraper-

sonal, and naturalistic. The competition was adjudged by a panel of judges including Rema Kumar, a Delhi based textile designer, Pragati Agarwal, Founder, Art Tree and other dignitaries. Scottish High International School aced the competition by accumulating the maximum number of prizes 'MI-me' and were declared Champion of the Day.

The students of class V of Delhi Public School, Sushant Lok showcased their annual presentation: Tamso Ma Jyotrigamaya.

A dance-drama depicting the choice between walking the light of creative altruism or the darkness of destructive selfishness, it was an entertaining yet thought provoking presentation. The programme commenced with orchestra performance by the junior school choir.

The Scholar Badge and Award ceremony was the highlight of the day where 150 students were awarded for their meritorious academic performance and
